And among the wonders of the nineteenth century, none surpass this - that such astounding results as our eyes behold to-day have been reached in so few years, by such apparently inadequate means as have been employed. What worldly-wise schemer would have presumed to enter upon such a daring and glorious project, as the education and Christianizing of the whole world with such seemingly insufficient agencies? Indeed, even the faith of the church is very slow to grasp such a high possibility. Seventeen years ago, on a stormy day, in Boston, the Woman s Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, came into existence. Had the seven brave women who faced a furious New England storm, to meet and organize, foreseen the swift advance of responsibility in this great work, their courage might have failed them. But, step by step, God leads. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at This book is a reproduction of an important historical work.
