Not illustrated. 1902 Excerpt: .he looked at it very carefully under the electric light which sprouts from a twisted bunch of brass lilies on the wall, their stalks suggesting a modern Louis XV. nightmare. And what? Well, never mind. Now I want to hear her story. And we both sat down again for the third time on the tulip-sofa. I told him the history just as I had told him the outline of my life the day in the Harley woods. Only, as then I felt I was speaking of another person, now I seemed to be talking of myself when I came to the part of walking up the guillotine steps. And so they cut her head off--poor little lady! said Antony, when I had finished, and he looked straight into my eyes. The pillow of art-needlework and frills had fallen to the floor--even it could not remain comfortably on the hard seat! There was nothing between us on the sofa. Antony leaned forward, close to me. His voice was strangely moved. Comtesse! he began, when McGreggor knocked at the door. Mr. Gurrage is calling you, ma am, she said, in her heavy, Scotch voice, and he seems in a hurry, ma am. Ambrosine! echoed impatiently in the hall. Why, it must be dressing-time! said Antony, calmly, looking at his watch. I must not keep you, and he quietly left the room as Augustus burst in from my bedroom door. Where on earth have you been? he said, crossly....
