Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 279 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This is a history book by author Robert Thomas De Vincentis on the sciences of this world and includes America the Beautiful, which offers hyper-extended knowledge to the reader through Aftermath Science. This book of historical origins concerns 4 subjects; Science Nature Man God. It explains these subject starting from the foundations of the world and then leading to the present times in America. This book is not science theory, but rather a true traceable history of events coming down through the centuries on these four subjects. The book explains and details the 4 subjects, which includes their involvement by man on earth and God in the heavens. Further showing how and why everything came into being by a miraculous creation. Where the Creator is mentioned in the U.S. Constitution and was actually part of public education and government. Which was further confirmed by the actions of our founding fathers who laid hands on the Bible and swore oaths to God in the three branches of government. The author also takes on modern science and many of the greatest persons found in history thereby turning many things on its head that is currently being taught in the educational sciences around the world. This is a history book not a religious book, however it does explain the true Church and God and that known history. The author is also the founder of Aftermath Science which shows that our known science came about as a result of a miraculous creation and not before; as man s tool box to measure things found in this world is always incomplete in some way. The author is the foremost authority...
