Oleander Press Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 224 pages. Dimensions: 9.1in. x 6.0in. x 0.6in. A modern romance for a fractured age, Richard Katrovass first novel is a multi-layered mini epic that wholeheartedly lays its love on the line in the face of an abeyance of hope. Love for New Orleans; her secrets, her dark corners, her food. Love for life; its heroes, its villains, its also-rans. But above all, a love for Passion; its purity, its beauty, its inevitable consequences. Consequences felt by both twelve-year-old Willie Singer, growing up, and middle-aged Nathan Moore, growing older. Two inhabitants of the Crescent City whose paths collide and ricochet through the dying of a local poet and the ramifications of his death-bed opus - an epic poem, The Mystic Pig. For better and worse, their lives are forever altered. Mystic Pig beguiles. Written in evocative and poetic prose it effortlessly wraps the reader in the sensual, vibrant atmosphere of the French Quarter and delivers them right into the complex lives of its characters - warts and all. Its a novel about life and love, death and despair, acceptance, denial, murder, sex - and fine cuisine. Not necessarily in that order. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
