The recruiting laws made eligible for service all male persons, hired servants and apprentices above the age of sixteen and under fifty, 109 but did not permit the enlistment of slaves or of servants bound to serve till thirty-one years of age. 110 That free negroes were enlisted under these laws there is no room for doubt. A letter written April 24, 1783, to the governor by William Reynolds, commissary of military stores, states that James Day had been accused of transgressing in defrauding a black soldier and through a hasty and rather unfair hearing was ordered to prison where he now lies punishing. 111 In 1777 an act of Assembly designated drumming, fifing, and pioneering for the employment of the free mulattoes of the company. 112 Runaway slaves pretending to be free were accepted for enlistment to an extent that demanded in 1777 an act which...
