Learning through Action Learning
A Phenomenographic Analysis of a Cross-Cultural Set Composition

Book Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: LAP Lambert Academic Publishing | A Phenomenographic Analysis of a Cross-Cultural Set Composition | Action learning has evolved as an efficient tool for learning and bringing about change simultaneously in the 21st century. The growing body of literature on action learning acknowledges the wide use of action learning in a variety of organizations and contexts. However since its conception by Revans in 1940 s, action learning has been subject to different interpretations mostly due to its...
