Did Schalk know something of which he was not aware? I shall give the necessary instructions as soon as possible, said David. You can take over the business, or I will, just as you please. Paul Schalk was livid with rage; Ribot s coolness exasperated him. Hardly knowing what he said, he shouted-- You defy me, do you? Well, there s a way of dealing with illicit diamond buyers He stopped; David Ribot had dropped into his chair in a state of collapse. Then Schalk knows about that, thought David, and the shock was too much for him. Paul Schalk gloated over him. He made no attempt to assist him. That was a lucky shot of mine. I wonder what made me think of it? He s been at it, I ll swear; it knocked him completely over. I wonder if he s got any of the stones here? I ll tax him with it, any way; there s no harm in that. David Ribot recovered and looked helplessly around him. His eyes fixed on Schalk: what did he know? K Slowly David recovered his faculties, and as he did so he felt safer, more sure of himself; gradually his determination came back to him to be rid of Schalk at any cost. So I hit the mark, said Schalk. A nice little pile of stones you ve got hidden away, I ll be bound. David trembled, but his...
