Diary of a Dumb Jew

By Jordan Hirsch

America Star Books, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 213 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Bringing to vivid light the brutality that she endured through her teen years, author Jordan Hirsch chronicles the savage verbal and physical abuse she fell victim to at the hands of her high school boyfriend. She writes: The bruises on my neck were so dark that it almost looked like I had drawn little circles with black marker. I even tried to wash them off. But this wasn't something soap and water could fix. Hirsch has managed to construct a powerful memoir with her use of brutal honesty that is shocking and genuine, heartbreaking and hopeful. Imparting lessons learned the hard way, words of advice, and hope that other people will talk about what the author calls a preventable and curable disease, this work is expressive of assets gained even more than of loss and hurt. By having the courage to tell her ugly story, the author grants readers an authentic and palpable insight into abuse, bringing awareness to the issue and deriving triumph and strength from years of terror.
