MORE LIGHT ON THE OLD MILL AT NEWPORT (CLASSIC REPRINT)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from More Light on the Old Mill at Newport Having been interested for a number of years in the study of old-fashioned windmills and being in England in the summer of 1910, I journeyed to Warwickshire for the express purpose of seeing this old Chesterton mill. My interest was keen to not only take some photographs of it but secure as well the measurements and details of its structure, that I had quite failed to find in all references to it. I particularly desired to examine the interior and the machinery, concerning which there seems to have been heretofore a total lack of information. I believe that this is the first time that the entire detail of the mill has been secured and made public Chesterton is an old parish about four and a half miles south of Leamington and about ten miles east of Stratford-on-Avon and the first trip to it, - of rather an exploratory nature, - was in a modern taxicab, in delicious contrast to the almost mediaeval structure of which I was in quest. Good roads led to a point near the windmill and I had at last the satisfaction of finding that it still existed-which had been an open question - and of having it before my eyes. It was closed and barred and after taking several views with my camera, I retired to devise strategic ways and means to get inside. I ascertained that the mill was on the lands and is the property of the present Lord Willoughby de Broke, who individually I scarcely expected to have to reach, trusting that a caretaker could be found who would afford...
