Choosing a Quality Loving Sexual Relationship: A Manual for Teachers, Counselors, Parents

By Maureen Craig McIntosh

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 279 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book is written as an offering for anyone involved with teenagers, in an attempt to provide skills to assist our youth to prevent unintended pregnancy, or sexually transmitted infections or other abuses associated with sexuality. It is intended to give teens the opportunity to evaluate for themselves what kind of sexual relationship they want. There are no judgements, just questions to think about and an offering of information. The most any of us can do to prevent unintended teen pregnancy and other consequences is to offer information. How the information is used is up to the teenager.  About the Author Maureen Craig McIntosh worked as a nurse with youth at the Sexual Health Centre in Moncton over twenty years. She has Masters Degree in Counseling and Human Development. She is certified to practice Reality Therapy and is a Senior Faculty Member of William Glasser International. She is also a Canadian Certified Counselor. Today she works as a Certified Personal and Executive Coach, Trainer and Speaker. She has spent many hours talking to youth...
