Most professors are like iron between two equal loadstones: God draws, and they incline towards God; and the world draws, and they incline to the world; they are between both; they would not leave God for the world, if they might not be engaged to l?ave the worl for God. But if they must part with all, with every lust, every darling, every beloved sin; why then the spirit of Dermis possesses them, and God is forsaken by them. My brethren, this is the great reason why many that come to be but almost Christians go no farther; some one beloved lust or other hinders them, andyafter a long and high profession, parts them and Christ for ever: they did run well--(Gal. v. a, ) but here it is that they give out, and after all fall short, and perish to eternity* Thus...
