Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Lincoln John Hay was Lincoln s junior private secretary. His senior was John G. Nicolay. They were the literary executors of the war president. A delightful personal letter from Hay to Nicolay, written in the sweltering August of 1863, has been added to the literature of this anniversary year. Hay wrote: Everybody has gone. The tycoon is in fine whack. I have rarely seen him more serene and busy. He is managing this war, the draft, foreign relations, and planning a reconstruction of the union, all at once. I never knew with what tyrannous authority he rules the cabinet, till now. The most important things he decides and there is no cavil. There is a glimpse of Lincoln s energy, power and faith. In the midst of everything, and in the days of 1863, when everything was dark, he was planning a reconstruction of the union. I think this faith had to do with what follows in the Hay letter, which I beg you to note: There is no man in the country so wise, so gentle and so firm. I believe the hand of God placed him where he is. Hay was then 25, and such was the impression made on the mind of the young man in his intimate association. As to some things set forth by Hay in this personal: letter we are now, on this centenary anniversary, agreed; but as to the belief of the young man. in the possession of which he died, beloved and full of honor. I imagine there is more obscurity of thinking. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books....
